<sup>2</sup> Exclusive of physical therapists and hospital dietitians but including Pharmacy Corps. Rates per 1,000 troops based on addition of strength utilized in determining rate for total male Army officers to that used in ascertaining rate for total female Army officers.

<sup>3</sup> Basic data and rates from "Temporary Promotions of Male Officers by Arms and Services," in "Strength of the Army," 1 July 1945, pp. 104-105, for the years 1943 and 1944; from table with same title in "Strength of the Army," 1 November 1945, p. 97, for subsequent dates. No adjustment to take account of revised Medical Department strengths used in this volume (see table 31) was made in determining rates. Includes Pharmacy Corps.
